

Wednesday, June 9, 2010 • La Grande, Oregon

Dear Prospective Sponsor,

This is the fourth year for the Blue Mountain Occupational Safety & Health Conference. Last year was a big success and once again we are expecting more than 150 attendees and 10 exhibiting companies from Northeast Oregon and Southeast Washington. The Blue Mountain Conference is an excellent way for employers and employees to learn how to improve the management of their safety and health programs.

Sponsorships and in-kind donations will help keep the cost of the conference affordable. The registration fee for the event is only $50 per person. Our theme for this year's conference is "What Do You See in Your Safety Mirror." We hope you will join us to create a crystal-clear image of a successful safety culture!

We look forward to your sponsorship of the Blue Mountain Occupational Safety & Health Conference slated for Wednesday, June 9, 2010, at the Blue Mountain Conference Center in La Grande, Oregon.
