Proposed Changes to Division 1, General Administrative Rules Repeal of rules no longer administered by OR-OSHA

Oregon OSHA proposes to repeal eight rules in Division 1, General Administrative Rules, originally created to help administer the Farm Worker Housing Tax Credits program. Oregon Housing and Community Services now administers this program, therefore we are repealing our administrative rules relating to this program.

When does this happen: Adoption will tentatively be in August 2006.

RULE SUMMARY

Oregon OSHA proposes to repeal eight rules in Division 1, General Administrative Rules, originally created to help administer the Farm Worker Housing Tax Credits program. Oregon Housing and Community Services now administers this program, therefore we are repealing our administrative rules relating to this program.

A public rulemaking hearing may be requested in writing by 10 or more people, or by an association with 10 or more members, within 21 days following the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the Oregon Bulletin or 28 days from the date Notice was sent to people on the agency mailing list, whichever is later. If sufficient hearing requests are received, the notice of the date and time of the rulemaking hearing must be published in the Oregon Bulletin at least 14 days before the hearing.

The agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing the negative economic impact of the rule on business.

Fiscal and Economic Impact, including Statement of Cost of Compliance:

No fiscal or economic impact is expected with this rulemaking.

How were small businesses involved in the development of this rule?

A group of stakeholders from around the state, representing growers, farmers, developers, community based housing groups and the Oregon Housing and Community Services Department participated in the development of these rules for administration of the statutes. They were also involved in transferring jurisdiction to Housing and Community Services.

Administrative Rule Advisory Committee consulted? No.

If not, why? Not necessary with this nature of rulemaking. This rulemaking is to repeal rules being administered by another agency.
